NOSTALGIA IS NOT SOMETHING I CARE
 TO INDULGE IN, ESPECIALLY WHEN IT
 COMES TO LOVE.
 IF IT GETS TO YOU, IT FEELS LOST
 FOREVER, JUST A LITTLE MEMORY GUARDING
 YOUR HEART WITH ALL ITS MIGHT,
 COMPLETE WITH GOOD INTENTIONS AND
 POOR EXECUTIONS.
 BUT THE FAMILIARITY OF HER SKIN,
 OF THE SPECKLING OF MOLES ALONG HER LEFT ARM,
 THE FRESHLY DYED HAIR,
 STILL POOFY,
 STILL CURLY,
 THE MUSH OF HER THIGHS SHE'S NEVER LIKED,
 MADE FEELING LOST WITHOUT ROUTINE SOUND FUN.

Can you smell that?
 Breathe a little deeper.
 It's Spring.

ScratchThat Magazine operates on Turrbal and Yuggera country. We pay our respects to the custodians of the land and recognise Elders past, present, and emerging. These lands have always been places of teaching, learning, and story-telling. Sovereignty was never ceded.

Welcome to SCRATCH THAT magazine.

ScratchThat is QUT's art magazine, run by students for students. We showcase the writing, visual art, and music of up and coming creatives from around Australia, and often act as a stepping stone towards further success.

I AM SOMETHING OF A DREAMY
 WITHERING FOOL
 WITH MY HEAD
 IN THE CLOUDS
 OR MAYBE THE CLOUDS
 IN MY HEAD.
 I WANT ONLY
 TO SEE THE STARS
 BUT THE CLOUDS
 WILL NOT CLEAR.

Summer days no longer feel quite the same...
The breeze blows and I hear glimpses of you saying my name,
People always talking, finishing conversations with
"Oh, what a shame"
